Dear Christian School Principal and Staff:

As we progress through each day seeking to meet the many needs of our students – academic, emotional, physical, and spiritual, we often feel drained and wonder if we have prioritized our day correctly. Did we follow the Lord’s call? In addition, keeping a balance among school commitments, family responsibilities, and church involvement is a continual struggle. With our theme: “What doth the LORD require of thee?” from Micah 6:8, we pray that this conference may help Christian school teachers regain focus and serenity in fulfilling the calling to be a Christian school teacher.

So, we invite you to take some time to join us for a spiritually focused in-service to renew our priorities in teaching, gain insight into our students, explore ways to help students face the challenges in the world today, and examine tools for incorporating a Biblical perspective into our courses.

Come with multiple teachers from your school or send one or two representatives to bring back this information for the rest of your staff. You are welcome to come for part or all of the conference!

Sincerely,

Plymouth Christian Schools Conference Planning Committee

Cheryl DeWaal, Kevin DeVries, Daniel Sweetman
